

Providing safety, healing and justice for battered women and their children.

Wish List

Kitchen

Non-perishable Food

Snacks

Coffee

Creamers

Condiments

Comfort foods

100% Juices

Bottled Water

Sugar

Flour

Cooking oils

Seasonings

Trash Bags (13.5 & 39 gal.)

Paper towels

Dish Cloths

Personal Items

Shampoo and Hair Conditioner

Body Wash

Deodorant

Cell Phones (Used)

Multicultural Hair and Body Products

New Thermometer (No Mercury)

Toilet Paper

Tissues

Shaving Cream

Sunscreen

New Pillows

Nail polish remover

Q-Tips / Cotton Rounds

Nail clippers, tweezers, etc.

Women's Items

New underwear

Children

New Underwear

Office

Copy Paper (White/Color)

Easel Paper

Lanyards

Postage Stamps

Baby Items

Bottle Brushes

Diaper Pails w/Lids

Baby Monitors

Diapers Size 3-6

New Sippy cups/Bottles

Pack and Plays

Shelter Facilities

Light bulbs

Batteries

Disinfecting wipes and sprays

Air Cleaners/Purifiers

All-Purpose Cleaners

Toilet bowl cleaner & Brushes

Flashlights

Gloves (Plastic Non-Latex)

Laundry detergent

Bleach

Dryer sheets

Extra Long Twin Mattress Pads (Plastic Lined)

Homemaking Items

Bath Towels

Bath Mats

Brooms w/Dustpans

Mops

Vacuum Cleaners

Journals

Calendars or Planners

Bedding

Comforters

The Cocoon occasionally accepts new bedding based on need. Normally, we refer donations of bedding to Path Stone which provides services to farm workers, low-income families and economically depressed communities.
419-875-6654

Cars & Furniture

Gently used or new couch/futon

St. Marks (419-353-6675) manages a car donation & furniture bank for women in shelter. These donations provide a great deal of stability for battered women reestablishing their lives.

Gift Cards & Cash Donations*

Money for Shelter Operations

Gift Cards from Meijer - Kroger - Big Lots

- Staples - Home Depot - Long distance

phone carriers - Gas Stations

Used Cell Phones Drop-off Locations

Calico, Sage and Thyme

115 Clay Street, Bowling Green

419-352-5417

People Called Women

6060 Renaissance Place-Suite F, Toledo

Oh, 43623

419-469-8983

Clothing Donations

Due to limited storage, the Shelter does not accept clothing donations unless specifically listed under women, children, and baby items. However, please consider these options for your clothing donations.

1. Mosaic Consignment Shop (101 N Main St Bowling Green, Oh) Cocoon has a consignment account where girls/women's clothing, shoes, purses and accessories are accepted. Call (419-352-0808)
2. The Deacon's Shop at First Presbyterian Church (126 S. Church Street, Bowling Green). This is a free clothing bank that benefits all of those in need in the community (call 419-352-5176 for details).
3. Or in the Perrysburg area donate to St. Tim's Clothesline (841 E. Boundary Street). This is a free clothing bank that benefits those in need in the community. (419-874-5704).

The Cocoon Shelter is asking for your help in the form of donations, which will be used to provide a safer living environment for victims of domestic violence and help women transition from emergency shelter to their own housing. Above is a list of our current needs. This list is updated regularly so please request a new wish list if yours seems outdated. We greatly appreciate your help. All donations are tax deductible. Arrangements must be made for donations to be dropped off/picked up due to our unpublished location. Call 419-373-1730 or email donations@cocoonshelter.org for information. *Checks, made out to Cocoon Shelter, and gift cards can be mailed to The Cocoon Shelter; PO Box 1165; Bowling Green, OH 43402.